

KAYLA MOHR,
ELGIN HIGH SCHOOL
NOVEMBER, 2010
FEMALE ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

Elgin High School nominates Kayla Mohr, for Fahey Bank's Athlete of the Month award for November 2010. Kayla has had an incredible fall for the Lady Comets, both on the volleyball court and as a member of the cross-country team. Kayla was the primary setter for the Lady Comets volleyball team that finished the season with a 22-4 record, including a spotless 13-0 MOAC matches. She led the volleyball team in passing (132), sets (1926), and assists (747). She also finished second in the MOAC in assists, and was fourth in the league in blocks. While helping lead the volleyball team to a league and district championship, Kayla was also a standout for the Lady Comets cross-country squad. She was fourth in the league meet and fourth in the district meet. She chose to miss the regional cross-country, meet with a good chance to go back to the state cross-country meet, to participate in a district championship volleyball match.

For her efforts this fall, Kayla received honorable mention and all conference honors in volleyball, and first team all conference honors in cross-country.

Honorable mentions: Julie Samogala of Marion Catholic, Katey Holler of Pleasant, Hannah Campbell of River Valley and Kelby Marshall of Ridgedale
